

Money Museum of Lithuania Bank

The Museum opened its doors in 1999. Our Museum has accumulated more than 55 thousand exhibits. A real crowd-puller is the world's largest coin pyramid consisting of 1,000,935 coins, included in the Guinness World Records. Official record adjudicators note that the pyramid was built with Lithuanian one-cent coins, celebrating the Lithuanian litas, former national currency, in anticipation of the adoption of the euro.

Vilnius region Route

1. Medininkai Castle.
2. Vytautas Kasiulis Art Museum.
3. Money Museum of Lithuania Bank.
4. Trakai Basilica of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
5. Trakai History Museum, Exhibition of Liturgical Art.

It is one of the 5 objects presented on the route of the Vilnius region, adapted for people with disabilities and for those who are interested in more convenient accessibility.

The object is conveniently located near Gedimino prospektas.

The modern Money Museum not only provides visitors with a possibility to view the valuable exhibits and get acquainted with the information provided on the stands, but to actively participate in the cognitive process as well. By virtue of the interactive training means observer becomes participant who can strike a souvenir plate on one's own, use a special scale to weigh oneself, and find out one's price if one were of gold, platinum or silver. And this is far from all the Museum offers. Virtual expositions, thematic films, games, specialised internet access – all this is available on computer terminals with touch screens. The Money Museum's visual graphic solutions, integration of pieces of art, various interactive means, visual, sound and light effects have not only been employed to interest and provide the visitor with some knowledge, but to help accumulate and consolidate that knowledge, to encourage to go into detail, interpret and search for answers on their own. The Museum's multilayer exposition, which combines the rich history of money and the topical issues of today's economic life, offers interesting information for everyone.
